PRESENTED BY HOTEL EMPORIUM

Founded in 1997 in Los Angeles, the Oxygen collection has carefully considered fragrances to invite you to partake in a botanical spa experience.

Take a deep breath and enrich your life with Oxygen. A collection of botanical products, Oxygen Cosmetics capture purity in its most refreshing form. Made with all-natural ingredients and enriched with vitamins, our products cleanse the body and rejuvenate the senses—creating an unforgettable experience with every use. With a vibrant collection of shampoos, conditioners, lotions and soaps, Oxygen is everything you need to refresh your day. Oxygen: Pure, Refreshing, Essential.

BRAND STORY

Essential. Universal. Timeless. Take a deep breath of Oxygen and experience the tranquil, calming effect it has on your mind and body. O2 Oxygen has your mind and body. O2 Oxygen has built its reputation and brand exactly on this philosophy of zen and balance. A sophisticated balance of ingredients were handcrafted by unlikely pairings of botanists and chemists.

The heart of Oxygen contains sensitive botanical secrets combined with subtle fragrances to enhance the soothing experience. We source these botanical extracts from the richest locations throughout the world including Sri Lanka.

The O2 Oxygen experience is one in which guests enjoy simple pleasures that transform everyday routines into meaningful moments. An assortment of high end spa cosmetics that guest will cherish. Oxygen is about finding the right balance, relaxation, and rest through the elegant hotel amenity collection.
